Introduction

I am Sorry are the hardest words to bring out when you have to admit that you are wrong. Nobody ever likes to admit their mistakes but it is very important that you master this skill of apologizing.

While writing an apology letter for stealing, you should see to it that you explain the person that the event has deeply affected you and changed you in a certain way. Let them know that you have already made plans to change your choices and also tell them what all things you have done to incorporate those changes.

Apology letter for stealing sample Tips

Following are some unique tips that will help you apologize for your bad deed:

- Include how deeply you are sorry for whatever you did, apologize.
- Let them know what all changes you have incorporated in yourself to avoid stealing.
- Tell them that you will surely not steal again.
- Remind the person about the event, but not in detail, just make sure both of you are thinking about the same event.
- Also, include some detailed information about what was stolen, where and when it was stolen from.
- Complete the letter by indicating that you are fully ready to face the consequences.
- Also, end the letter on a positive note so that the recipient cools down at the end of the letter and feels good that you have realized your mistake.

Dear (Name of the recipient),

I am really sorry to steal your hair dryer from your store. I know I was very wrong, taking away a brand new hair dryer from your store when you didn’t notice. I am completely aware that it is unlawful and it must have created a lot of problems.

It was really an embarrassing experience when I reached home and my mother asked why I stole it from your store. She explained me all the wrongs about it and I wish to learn and grow from his experience. I am deeply sorry for my bad deed and thus, I am even returning that hair dryer with this letter and starting to make some changes in my life.

Now, I truly understand that stealing is completely wrong and whatever happened on that day has taught me that its consequences are not worth it. I am really very sorry for my deed and I request you to accept my apology ad forgive me. Please feel free to contact me on 98 if you wish to discuss on this matter.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Your Name.

Subject: Apology letter for stealing the residual stock from godown

Dear _____(Sir or Madam),

Sir, with great self consciousness and bringing together all the strength to write and express this one at the earliest not just to express for the sake of regret but beyond everything to thank you for having made me realize how indecent the incident was.

Without making an attempt to remind you or also to even make you responsive for my licentious behavior.
Sir, my unfaithful pressure for the said malicious event is actually a punishable offence; but your gracious and generous nature and personality will be able to forgive and give me a chance to improve and realize into positive vibrations and live a sin free life even in hard times. Assuring further to walk on the path enlightened by you forever in all the walks of life.

Thanking You

Yours truly,
