Dear Sir,

I am a student in the final semester of PGDBM course in this institute and reside in the Boys Hostel. I have been given show-cause for misbehavior in the hostel on 11September2013.

I wish to bring to your notice that a bunch of students including me were manhandled by the Warden and few of his friends yesterday night. While we were having a casual get-together and playing music; the Warden, Mr. Henry and his friends interrupted and asked us to vacate the premise since we were disturbing them.

They were drunk and soon a brawl began between the two groups. We were hit using hockey-sticks and we fought to protect ourselves. In the bargain, the warden and his friends also sustained injuries.

While we did not break any rules laid out by our get-together in the amphitheater; the Warden has framed us on false allegation of life-threatening assault on him. We have been manhandled, hurt and abused even though we did not initiate the fight.

We request you to kindly accept our plea and conduct an independent inquiry and grant us justice.

Thanking You,

Yours Sincerely

Mike Callahan
