Subject: Request for donation for our cause

Respected Sir,

Hello, I am Mr. Pimenta. I along with my friends have started a social working group. We work for the betterment of street children. I am writing this letter for requesting you if some help can be provided to us in form of donation. We provide medical facilities and food to these children. Hence, lot of funds are required for the same.

This time even education facilities would be provided to needy children. This facility is specially for those children who have an aim in life and wish to become something. Thus, funds will be needed for this reason as well. We give you an assurance that we would not misuse the funds. We also give you the assurance that it is definitely for a noble cause. We will also show you all the accounts. We hope our request will be considered.

Your's Sincerely,

Mr. Pimenta
