Dear Martha,

I am writing this letter to you, my beloved to bid goodbye. I am sad leaving you, but I hope you stand by me in these trying times. We have to undertake this hardship to secure our future.

Although I could have started with a job here in New York, the opportunity at Canada will prove more beneficial professionally and financially. Despite what people say, we both understand the importance of being financially secure for which I have to take this step.

It is as hard for me as it is for you to stay miles away, but you will always be in my heart. Moreover, this separation is not permanent and I will be a call away in case you need my support.

I am leaving with a hope that you are with me in this decision. I will miss you terribly. I will come back as soon as possible. Till then, take care and goodbye.

Always Yours

Jack
