Sample Great Love Letter

Dear Stacy,

I am writing this letter to you twelve days, thirteen hours, fifteen minutes and twenty-one seconds after we first met and you agreed to be my friend. It is time I confessed that the true feelings I have for you is LOVE.

I have felt strangely for a while now. There have been instances when I became speechless when you were around, I felt jealous when were in the company of other boys, I felt like holding you close when you smiled and I feel restless when I did not see you in the class and so on. What else do I call these feelings but love?

I love you and going by your responses in many situations, I know that you too have soft corner tucked away for me in your heart. Please do not hesitate to say it if you feel the same for me.

I will regard myself to be lucky to have found true love. I am sure we will make a great pair. I will wait for your reply and hope like hell that it will be a positive one.

Yours Lovingly,

Gusty
