Sample Romantic Goodbye Letter

Dear Lucy,

I am writing this letter with a heavy heart to bid goodbye. It seems like yesterday that we first met at college. Although we came from different backgrounds, we loved and respected each other for what we were.

After being together for two years, you have begun imposing too many conditions in our relationship and expect me to change my ideals and ways of life to get accepted into your family.

I belong to a poorer family, but have faith in my abilities. I cannot abandon my parents to join your family business and secure our future. There is a vast difference in our thinking. I see no other option but to part ways to avoid ego clashes and misunderstandings.

Although end I dreamt of marriage, I realize it cannot happen. But, you will always remain dear to me. I wanted to bid goodbye and hope you find your kind of love. Goodbye.

Take Care,

Jason
