My love,

Hope this day brings you cheerfulness and joy to you. I am very happy about our relationship. It's been more than two years and our bond is strengthening as days pass by. You are the precious gift I have ever received till now. Your presence makes me happy and my heart fills with joy.

You have always inspired me take up new challenges in my career. In fact I am surprised at the latent talent I possess. It is just because of you that I am doing extremely well in all fields. I want your presence in my life all through and wish the day will come true when we start living together.

My love, how much should I praise you? You have taught me how to live and I feel so joyful in your presence. You carry an aura around you and spread happiness wherever you go. I am indeed fortunate to win your heart and I never hesitate to say that I owe you my life to you.

Honey, when can we meet? I look forward to meet you at the earliest.

Lots of love

My Dear _____ (name of your girlfriend),

I want to express my feelings for you through this letter. I cannot express in words how much I love you. I am short of expressions and searching for words to show how much I care for you. You have been my most precious gift I have ever received.

Your presence brings me happiness and joy. I get lost in your world when I am with you. Time passes just like that whenever we meet. I always look forward to meet you and spend valuable time with you.

Honey, you have been my inspiration and you have inspired me to do wonders in whatever I do. I cannot think of a life without you. Your presence adds value to my life.

Lots of love,
