Sample Business Appreciation Letter Template

Introduction

The objective of writing a business appreciation letter is to express your appreciation towards the other business organization for a successful completion of a project. By doing this an organization expresses its professionalism which is very helpful in maintaining a long term positive relationship with the other organization.

Sample Business Appreciation Letter Template Tips

Following tips should be considered for writing an effective business appreciation letter:

- First and foremost it is vital to congratulate the other person on his achievements and appreciate him for his valuable contribution.
- The wordings of the letter should be such that it clearly expresses your appreciation towards the other person or organization as a whole.
- Tone of the letter should be formal.
- You must make the other person feel assured that the business relationship with him will continue for a longer term.
- Once you are through writing the letter, please recheck the same for spelling mistakes or grammatical errors as it is a professional communication.

Sub: Expressing appreciation for your contribution

Dear Mr. Peterson,

I would like to extend my heartiest appreciation to you and to your team members for making the supply on time to M/s Omega Agencies of 250000 televisions. Without your contribution it would have been completely impossible to complete such a big order. It's a privilege for us to have a business association with an organization like yours.

As a token of appreciation, I am organizing a small party at my guest house in Atlanta. I would be very grateful to you if you and your team member also come and be a part of our wonderful evening.

I wish that our partnership will go a long way and reach new heights of success.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely'
