Subject: Thank you letter for the scholarship

Respected Sir,

I was very joyous to learn that I was a recipient of the XYZ scholarship. I am composing to express gratitude you for your bountiful, economic support towards my higher learning. I am a numbers major who plans to pursue a teaching career for homeless minors. I am currently a juvenile and design to graduate in the fall of 2012. After graduation, I will request paid work at one of our local public schools with wants of motivating other students to achieve a higher education.

By awarding me the XYZ scholarship, I am adept to concentrate on what is important for me, education. Your economic generosity has permitted me to be one step nearer to my aim and has inspired me to help other ones by giving back to the community. I wish one day I will be able to help other scholars achieve their aim just as you have helped me. An extreme thanks from the inner most part of my heart to you.

Yours Sincerely,
