Dear Madam,

I apologize for my behavior during science exam. I tried to cheat and you caught me at the right time. Actually I want to explain the reasons for my behavior. I was ill for almost one week. I copied the notes given in the class with the help of my classmates. I did not understand the topics in science. I requested the science teacher to postpone the exam in my case and conduct it next week, so that I will be prepared for the exam. But she said that it is not possible to conduct an exam just for one student. I did not want to fail in the exam. I made a plan to cheat from my friend's paper this time. I know that copying is an offense but I did not have any other option left.

I already informed and apologized to my parents and I take this opportunity to please forgive me this time. I promise that I will not cheat in any exam in the coming days. I hope you will understand me and forgive my mistake.

If you permit me, I shall write the exam again and prove my worth.

Once again I apologize and request you to forgive me.

Yours sincerely,

Gautam

Dear Madam,

I sincerely apologize for my behavior in the class yesterday. I was caught by my teacher while I was trying to copy from my friend's paper. I want to explain the circumstances which lead to copying. I was not well last week and did not attend school.

I copied all the notes from my classmates note books but could not understand few topics in science. I requested the teacher to postpone the exam in my case so that I will take time to understand and prepare for the exam. But the teacher said that it is not possible to conduct exam exclusively for one student. I did not have any other choice but to copy as I did not want to fail in the exam.

I am apologizing once again and request you to forgive me.

Yours sincerely,
